

I strongly oppose this new proposed relaxation in regulations. When it is ok to glamorize sex or the vulgar language? Never. I prefer my future children not be subjected to this type of material. I believe that studios can produce great shows without having to show nudity or use the vulgar language. I have the same right as any other individual in the country to watch without the offensive material being prominently displayed.